BOXING CARD AT GANGES IS LIVELY EVENT

By Review Representative
GANGES, Oct. 15.—The Ganges Athletic Club staged a very successful boxing show on Friday, Oct. 9th, in the Mahon Hall at Ganges. The large crowd that attended was made up of Island residents, officers and men of the "Skeena" and "Vancouver."

The opening bout was put on by Wendon and Archer of the Vancouver, with the latter getting the decision.

Candy and Barkley, also of the Vancouver, went on next and put up a very good show in three fast rounds. The decision went to Barkley.

Mason of the Vancouver won from McDonald of the Skeena.

Another Skeena man, Sinclair, was defeated by Woods of the Vancouver.

K. Tahouny, Fulford, lost to V. Hampson of Hope Bay after providing plenty of action and putting up a remarkable good fight.

Swetman won from Marcotte, both of the Skeena.

E. Ryan and R. Kerman gave the crowd lots of thrills and drew at the end of the third. In the extra round that followed, Akerman was given the decision.

Dillon of the Vancouver K.O'd his ship mate, Worle.

J. Whitside, of Ganges, lost to Cameron of the Skeena in the semi-final.

The main event was the best exhibition of boxing on the card. Two Skeena men, McGoldrich and Jennings, supplied this bout and received a great ovation from the crowd. No decision was given as it was an exhibition bout.

The judges were Lieut. Adams and F. Stacey. C. Aubry and Lieut. Adams refereed.

At the end of the program Capt. Brodeur of the Skeena presented the prizes to the winners.

LITERARY TOPIC AT Y. P. MEETING

Nineteen young people gathered at the meeting of the Young People's Society on Monday evening. The meeting was in the hands of Group C and took the form of a literary night, when book reviews were given by Winnie Thornley and Bryan Henth.

Next week's meeting will be under Group A, when it is hoped Miss Jean Menzies, of the First United Church Young People's Society will be present to give an account of the Toronto Young People's Conference.

The members were reminded of the checker social to be held on Oct. 22nd, when play will continue in the tournament on the McIntyre checker board.

QUIET WEDDING OF PENDER GIRL

By Review Representative
PENDER ISLAND, Oct. 15.—On Tuesday evening of last week, Oct. 6th, at the home of friends in Kerisdale, the marriage was quietly solemnized in the presence of only immediate relatives of the bride, of Elsie Ida, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Bowerman, of Hope Bay, Pender Island, and Mr. Cyril Weeks, of Kelowna, B.C., the Rev. Stonehouse officiating. The bride and groom were unattended and left shortly afterwards for a motor trip through the United States to Kelowna, where they will reside.

A girl in California is suing the driver of a car in which she was riding at the time of an accident for $35,000 because, she claims, she lost her sense of smell. She'll be lucky if she gets a cent.

KUPER ISLAND IS LEADING

By Review Representative
FULFORD HARBOUR, Oct. 15.—On Sunday afternoon a football match was played at Fulford between Kuper Island and Fulford which ended in favor of the visiting team, 8-1. This is the second win for Kuper Island, they having played North Galiano, winning and receiving two points, and now have a total of four points.

OFFICERS FOR SOCIAL CLUB ARE ELECTED

The re-organization meeting of the Sidney Social Club held last week in the Guide and Scout Hall was marked by a very encouraging attendance. The election of officers took place, resulting as follows:

Honorary President—Mrs. J. T. Harrison.

President—Mr. T. Lidgate.

Vice-President—Mr. N. Fralick.

Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. R. N. MacAulay.

Committee—Mrs. T. Lidgate and Mr. Sandy McDonald.

It was decided to hold the meetings on Tuesday of each week instead of Wednesday. These will be held at 8 o'clock in the Guide and Scout Hall, Third Street. Following the business meeting 500 was enjoyed, prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. A. Prince and Mrs. T. Lidgate and Mr. Sandy McDonald.

LADIES' AID HELD MEETING

The Ladies' Aid of the United Church met for their monthly meeting on Oct. 13th at the home of Mrs. Sam Brethour, East Road.

Arrangements were made for the catering at the men's meeting held last evening in Wesley Hall.

The society would like to express their hearty appreciation to one and all who helped by donations or service, in the catering at the Saanich Fair held last month.

Refreshments served by the hostess at the close of the business were much enjoyed.

The November meeting will be held on Tuesday, the 10th, at the home of Mrs. T. Lidgate.

GIRL GUIDES ELECT OFFICERS

By Review Representative
GANGES, Oct. 15.—The annual meeting of the Girl Guides was held at Ganges recently, the president, Mrs. C. C. Best, presiding. The election of officers for the year resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. V. C. Best.

Vice-President—Mrs. J. Taylor.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. T. E. Speed.

Committee—Mrs. Alex. Seonner.

Mrs. A. B. Prier, Mrs. P. Leather, Miss Reddis.

Miss Sheila Taylor has taken over the Brownies in place of Miss Nora Turner, who has left for Vancouver. Plans are being made to hold a field day at Ganges with the Sidney Guides. The following Guides received their ambulance badges after passing their examinations for the aid, held during the holidays: Sheila Taylor, Ethel Barrow and Sheila Halley.

A Toronto, Ont. man was in court charged with collecting as high as 50% interest on borrowed money. He believes it is a little unfair, as a leech can sometimes be put to a useful purpose.

LARGE CROWD HEAR PROGRAM BY CITY CHOIR

Last Friday night the choir of the First United Church, Victoria, again visited Sidney and, in St. Paul's United Church auditorium, presented a most enjoyable concert.

The entertainment opened with two choruses by the choir. Later in the evening four more delightful numbers were rendered. Miss Jessie Smith, A.T.C.M., and Mr. J. Smith gave a pianoforte duet. Mrs. W. B. Crowther gave an excellent comic reading, "The Photograph Album."

Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. T. R. Bowden, Miss Marjorie Watson, Mrs. S. A. Veals, and Mr. R. Hardy. "As Fair As Morn," and "What Saith My Dainty Darling" were sung by the ladies' chorus. Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Miss M. Freeman, Messrs. W. C. Fyfe and F. J. Mitchell gave a quartette, "Anchored." "Regular Royal Queen," a trio by Miss M. Watson, Mr. F. J. Mitchell and Mr. W. C. Fyfe received hearty applause. Miss Watson and Mr. W. C. Fyfe again appeared in a duet, "The Crookit Bawbee."

Practically every number was enthusiastically endorsed by the large audience that had assembled to enjoy the concert.

CLUB TO HOLD COUNTRY FAIR

A Country Fair with all its amusing and interesting attractions is to be staged on Friday, October 30th, by the Deep Cove Social Club in their hall at Deep Cove.

Further particulars regarding the event will be announced later.

LOCAL BOY WEDS VICTORIA GIRL SATURDAY EVE

A wedding of interest to many friends in Sidney drew a large congregation to Metropolitan Church, Victoria, at 8:30 on Saturday evening, when Rev. E. F. Church united in marriage Anna Marjorie, younger daughter of the late Mr. F. Temple Cliff and Mrs. Cliff, of 1216 Richardson Street, Victoria, and Mr. Victor E. L. Goddard, elder son of the late Mr. G. E. Goddard and Mrs. Goddard of "Sea Point," Sidney.

Masses of autumn flowers and greenery had been used in decorating the church. The wedding marches were played by the organist, Mr. Parsons, and during the signing of the register, Miss Mary Piercy sang "Beloved, It Is Morn."

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. R. L. Cliff, of Vancouver, the bride made a lovely picture in her dainty wedding gown of snow white point d'esprit. The gown was of ankle length and was fashioned with a high-waisted bodice. The Bertha collar was edged with a narrow frill of silk net, a similar frill also marking the hem. Her veil of embroidered silk net, which fell in snowy folds to form a train, was confined to the back of her head with a circlet of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, an heirloom which had belonged to her great-great-grandmother, and she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and pink carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Cliff, sister of the bride, in a pretty frock of seafoam green georgette, made with a long flared skirt, a plain bodice finished with a deep Bertha cape collar, and a soft girle of georgette at the natural waistline, and a cream lace hat, who carried a bouquet of pink carnations and mauve Michaelmas daisies, and Miss Iris Goddard, sister of the groom, who wore a frock of beige lace with a short jacket and a mohair hat to match, and held a bouquet of peach gladioli and carnations.

The flower girls were little Jane Bolton, in a yellow crepe de Chine smock, and Joyce Clearihue, in a smock of green crepe de Chine. They wore flower bandeaus in their hair and held baskets of tiny yellow and white chrysanthemums. Mr. Everett Goddard acted as groomsmen. The ushers were Messrs. Edwin Cliff, Wilfred Johnston, Robert Goddel and Alan King.

As the bridal party left the church the Sidney Boy Scout Troop, of which the groom was scoutmaster, formed a guard of honor which made a very appropriate setting.

A largely attended reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother. The bride and groom received their guests standing beneath an arch of greenery and chrysanthemums and were assisted by Mrs. Cliff, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Goddard, mother of the groom. Mrs. Cliff was smartly gowned in a dress of black lace with a short jacket, and a black Eucenie hat with a black plume. Mrs. Goddard wore a gown of black georgette and hat en suite, trimmed with a white plume. They both wore corsages of violets and pink roses.

The supper table was centred with the wedding cake and arranged with vases of pink carnations and branched silver candelabra with tall pink tapers. Assisting in serving were the Misses Virginia and Mavis Goddard, Miriam and Enid Church, Evelyn McFarlane, Mary Piercy, Kathleen and Winifred Taylor, Marion McGibbon, Rhoda Claitell, Genevieve Sorenson, Mabel and Viva Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Goddard left at midnight for the mainland. On their return they will make their home near Royal Oak.

They will be accompanied by a flock of silk travel tweed in shades of red with collar and cuffs of egg-shell satin, a brown Eugene hat and

SILVER TEA OCTOBER 28TH

Many novel attractions are being prepared by the committees in charge of the silver tea to be put on by the Guide and Brownie Association. Wednesday afternoon, October 28th, is the date set for the affair and the place will be the Guide and Scout Hall, corner of Third Street and Pagan Avenue.

CONSERVATIVE SOCIAL NOV. 6

Residents of the district are asked to remember the date, November 6th, for this will be the occasion of the annual social evening put on by the Sidney and North Saanich Conservative Association. The Masonic Hall, Saanichton, will be the scene of the event and all interested are invited to be present to participate in this affair.

SOCIAL TO BE EVEN BETTER

The day is fast drawing near for the annual event put on by the Catholic Ladies of North Saanich, which will be held on Thursday, Oct. 22nd, in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton. This year's social will mark the 11th annual event of this nature and from all reports promises even to surpass other entertainments, such as this, put on by these ladies.

Many prizes and tombolas will be awarded throughout the evening and all attending are assured a real evening's enjoyment.

BRIDGE PARTY AT GANGES

By Review Representative
GANGES, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Moorhouse, Ganges, entertained several guests at her home recently to supper and bridge. The winner of first prize was Miss P. Aitkens, consolation prize going to Mrs. Frank Crofton.

Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Halley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crofton, Mrs. K. G. Halley, Miss Aitkens, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cartwright, Miss Sheila Halley, Mr. Colin King, Mr. Scott Robinson, far coat.

Among the many beautiful wedding presents received was a presentation from the groom's Troop of Boy Scouts.

Guests at the wedding from the mainland were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cliff, the Misses Isabel and Grace Bolton, June and Verna Bolton, of Vancouver; Miss Olive Chilton, of Hollywood, and Miss Mandy Annandale, of New Westminster.

The groom is very well known in Sidney, having lived here since 1919, and for a good many years past he has taken a keen interest in the Scout movement here and is greatly admired by "his many boys." He is employed during the summer season in the Victoria Customs Inspector.

INSTITUTE MET ON THURSDAY AT FULFORD

By Review Representative
FULFORD HARBOUR, Oct. 15.—On Thursday afternoon the South Salt Spring Island Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting in the Institute Hall, Fulford Harbour, Mrs. R. Maxwell, the president, presiding.

Among the correspondence was a letter from The Canadian Products Group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, who have arranged a competition for Women's Institute members for the best essay on "Why I Should Buy Canadian Products." The essay is not to be over 100 words and to be in on or before Dec. 12th. First prize is a silver rose bowl presented by His Honor J. W. Fordham Johnson, Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia. Second prize is a silver salver, manufactured and presented by Mr. W. M. Carmichael, silversmith, Victoria. Third prize, B.C. Products to the value of $10.00 given by the Canadian Products Group.

There was also a request from the Islands Agricultural Association for donations of fruit, potatoes and vegetables to be sent to the poor and unemployed of Vancouver and districts.

Mrs. R. Maxwell and Miss B. Shaw were elected delegates to attend the Women's Institute Conference in Victoria now in session.

Nine members were present at the meeting. Mrs. McLennan, sr., and Mrs. Robert McLennan were the tea hostesses.

HARVEST AT MOUNT NEWTON

The annual Harvest Thanksgiving service will be held at the Mount Newton Sunday School on Sunday, commencing at 7:15 p.m. The speaker for the occasion will be Mr. H. Masters, of Victoria. Decorations in keeping with the season and special harvest music will mark the service.

At 2:45 p.m. the annual Sunday School rally will take place and all children, whether members of the Sunday School or not, are very heartily welcomed.

OWNERS OF PROPERTY—Are you annoyed by having outside parties trespassing on your property during the hunting season? The Review has prepared a sign with the proper wording to help you in case you are looking for relief during the shooting season from unwelcome trespassing. We have secured a canvas material that will withstand the rain and dampness better than ordinary card. Wording on the sign incorporates an extract from the Game Act, pointing out clearly that hunters cannot tramp all over your property without your consent. For your benefit we give you the exact wording on this sign:

NO SHOOTING OR TRESPASSING

Extract from B.C. Game Act: "Section 12.—No person shall at any time enter, with any firearm or trap in his possession, or permit his dog to enter into any growing or standing grain or upon any cleared land or land under cultivation, not his own, without the permission of the owner; and no person shall at any time hunt, shoot, or trap, or with firearm or trap in his possession go upon any enclosed land of another without permission of the owner, lessee, or occupant thereof."

The sign is 18 inches in length and 9 inches in depth. The price, 25c each or five for $1.00, postpaid to any address in British Columbia. Review, Sidney, B.C.

Miss Daphne Morris, of Victoria, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Morris, at North Salt Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Walcott, of Maple Bay, spent a short visit to the Island last week. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Crofton, Vesuvius Bay.

Mr. W. Mouat, jr., of Nanaimo, arrived at Ganges on Friday to visit his parents over the weekend.

Mr. N. W. Wilson spent a day or two in Victoria the latter part of last week, returning to "Barnsbury" on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Cam. Layard, of Deep Cove, has several violin pupils making a visit every Friday, alternately to Mrs. Moorhouse, Ganges, where the lessons are given.

The Salt Spring Island Legion held a smoking concert on Thursday evening in the Mahon Hall, in honor of the men of H.M.Ss. Skeena and Vancouver, who were visiting the harbor.

A friendly game of football was played on the Mahon Hall grounds on Thursday afternoon between a picked team from H.M.Ss. Skeena and Vancouver and Salt Spring Island, which ended in favor of the latter, 2-1.

Friday afternoon water sports were held at Ganges Harbour by the crews of the ships in port. Several spectators were present.

The following guests are registered at Harbour House: Rev. Philip Hayman, Victoria; George T. Michell, Sidney; Sergeant Lawson, Victoria; Inspector T. W. Parsons, Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Manners, Victoria; A. Wilson, Victoria; M. Grutz, Victoria; T. Hawes, Victoria; R. Forde Verrinder, Victoria; J. Price, Vancouver; Lieut. Adams, H.M.S. Mrs. D. V. Layard, of Deep Cove, paid a visit to Salt Spring on Friday.

The mixed foursome played by members of the golf club on Monday was won by Mrs. W. M. Mouat and Mr. W. Norton.

The character scenes from Shakespeare, in costume, presented at the Mahon Hall, Ganges, on Saturday evening by Mr. Leslie Manners and Miss Jessica Dale-Lee, two noted English actors, Miss Maureen Grute, dancer, and Miss Marjorie Hansen, pianist, delighted the audience with their high class performance. Unfortunately, owing to every night of the week being taken up with entertainments of numerous kinds, there were not as many there as there probably would have been otherwise.

Mrs. A. E. Leggett, of Cowichan, V.I., has been a recent visitor to the Island. She was a guest during her stay of Captain and Mrs. James Mitchell, Ganges.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Bittancourt have returned to the Island after an absence.
